SPORTS

MAILS RETAIN FOOTBALL LEAD

Punahou Take Diamond Heads Into Camp Saturday

The Mailer soccer football team strengthened their hold on the championship of the Hawaiian Association Football League Saturday when they defeated the huskies from the Y. M. C. A. by the score of 4 to 1. They did all their piling of scores in the first half, when they were aided by favorable wind. There were a number of shining lights from a football standpoint on both teams.

The second game between the Punahou and the Diamond Heads resulted in a shutout in favor of the former team, the points at the end of the contest being 3 to 0. The game was fast and keenly contested throughout, and was one of the best battles that has been fought out for some time.

The following is the manner in which the teams lined up: Mails—Goal, Belser; backs, McGill, Anderson; half backs, H. Chillingworth, Center, E. Davis; forwards, Dwight, Craig, Gray, Andrews, H. Bailey.

Y. M. C. A.—Goal, Cape; backs, Greig, Macdonald; half backs, Spalding, Dixon, Ken; forwards, J. Anderson, L. G. Blackman, Waterhouse, Oss, Robbins.

Referee—D. W. Anderson. Linemen—J. M. McKinnon, Ken. Punahou—Goal, Frazier; backs, Balcomb, Davis; half backs, Akina, Nicholson, Thompson; forwards, Mon Yin, R. R. Catton, Macaulay, J. Catton, Lyman.

Diamond Heads—Goal, Grune; backs, R. Clark, J. Clark; half backs, D. Sherwood, R. Chillingworth, H. Chilton; forwards, W. Chillingworth, S. Chillingworth, E. Fernandez, A. Smythe, A. Williams. Referee—D. W. Anderson. Linemen—M. R. Jamieson, J. M. McKinnon.

HIGH GIRLS LOSE

The Normal School girls won their game of basketball the other day with the Highs by the overwhelming score of 14 to 6. The High ladies were outwitted and outplayed, but they put up a neat battle all the time, playing with a never-give-up spirit. They lack training and experience, but that will come later. The line-ups were as follows: Normal—Marion Wilhelm, Mary Grote, guards; Belle Meidelt, Louise Fern, centers; Amy Hewal, Hattie Keokou, forwards.

High—Mary Ferreira, Eva Alana, guards; Sarah Stone, Hina Nelper, forwards; Agnes Apo, Hazel Williams, centers.

HIGH BOYS WILL PLAY BASKETBALL

Not satisfied with the way the girls are upholding the honor of the school in the basketball line, the High School boys are forming a team which they will soon put on the field to contest for honors.

The idea is to play against the Normals primarily, though the Highs are not averse to a meet with any of the other school teams.

High School has material and to spare in the picking of a team. A number of their men have played on various boys' basketball teams before and it is thought that they will put up a different stunt in basketball than that which their sister players are giving.

Among the boys from which the team will be picked are: Elisha Andrews, George Dwight, Daniel King, Valentine Marcelino, Wm. Rice, Bert Nott, and others.

The first game will probably be pulled off at the High School grounds this Friday at 4 o'clock.

Saturday was suggested, but the last of the games scheduled for the girls' league will be played then at the High grounds.

WILD WESTERS WIN

The Buffalo Bills defeated the Lei Lehuas in the Valleydale League yesterday by the score of 7 to 5. This was to have been the last game of the season, but its outcome put three teams in a tie for the championship, so another schedule will be framed up and another series of games will be played.

CRICKET MEETING

The annual meeting of the Honolulu Cricket Club will be held next Thursday evening in the rooms of the Scottish Thistle Club.

OSCAR COX SECOND

Oscar Cox was second in the golf tournament yesterday instead of J. D. Gaines, as was erroneously stated in the morning paper. Cox had a net score of 80, while Gaines' score was 81.
